Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you for your July 13 letter and list of books you are willing to give us. I will contact you concerning the books after they have been checked against what we have.

Thank you, too, for the seven stereo cards which you so kindly gave us. In checking about the cards which you requested, I found that they are part of a collection donated to us for the purpose of making them generally accessible. Thus, they cannot be traded or given away.

I want to reaffirm with you our agreement of May 5, 1981 that we lend you 118 cancelled checks from the Henry Shaw Papers, numbered 4-80-0012-41-1 through 4-80-0112-41-118. Please confirm with me your understanding that the Missouri Botanical Garden is given a credit line and that the checks will be returned to the Garden in due time.

I am looking forward to seeing your exhibit in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

Connie Wolf

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you for your October 17 letter. We are happy to know that the Garden will be given a credit line for use of the checks you have on loan. The checks are a integral part of the Shaw Papers and we want to assure their return.

Thank you, too, for your generous donation to the Banks prints. The tradition of excellence at the MBG library is sustained by such generosity. A formal notation of your gift will be included with one of the volumes.

I am sorry to tell you that the list of books you sent us has been mislaid. Would it be possible for you to send another? My apologies.

I look forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely yours,

Connie Wolf
